Services between North Shields and South Shields

the customs house
theatre cinema gallery

Live in North Tyneside and looking for ideas for a day out?

Why not use the Shields Ferry to see a play, concert or film at the Customs House? It's just 300 yards from South Shields Ferry landing, and the box office will refund a single ferry fare on the day of the performance for each event ticket purchased (£1 for adults, 50p for concessions).

Visit their website for full listings

The Green Room

The Customs House now also serves home cooked lunches from 12.00 – 2.00 every day in their Green Room bar bistro.

SOUTH SHIELDS

The ferry landing is about a 5 minute walk from South Shields Metro station. Most local buses serve Market Place and Keppel Street.

NORTH SHIELDS

The ferry landing is about a 10 minute walk from North Shields Metro station. The route is quite steep, but the Ferrylink Service 333 provides a free shuttle service to Shields Ferry passengers. This service also goes to North Shields Fish Quay.

The Route 19 bus service connects North Shields ferry landing with Royal Quays, Silverlink Business and Retail Park, Cobalt Business Park and the Metro system.
