Not Just A Train Ride

Enjoy the enchanting atmosphere of Woody Bay Station. Reopened in 2004 this is the UK's longest-closed section of railway to be reopened by volunteers and is only the first stage in rebuilding this much-loved railway that once ran between Lynton and Barnstaple.

We charge no entrance fee; car-parking and access to the station area including the toilets is also free as are our tea gardens, lawns, picnic area, platforms and wildlife reserve. Stay as long as you like in our gardens/picnic area or the peaceful woodland and enjoy the magnificent scenery of the Exmoor countryside.

Visit our interesting display of photographs both past and present, while our miniature railway operates on selected days.

Our Tea Rooms offer a variety of meals and light-bites. Enjoy a freshly-made sandwich or piece of cake. Savour a taste of Devon with our cream teas of local clotted cream, super strawberry jam and our special home-baked scones. On cooler days warming home-made soup is on offer and our real coal fire will be blazing.

Browse for books, gifts, special souvenirs or that valued reminder of your time spent with us in the Gift Shop where we stock a wide range of  items. There's an impressive range of exclusive L&B books and souvenirs as well as other items - all ideal gifts.

Well-behaved dogs are also welcome. All we ask is that you keep your dog on a short lead and for reasons of hygiene please keep them off the seats.

We are working hard at fundraising to rebuild the railway and your much-appreciated support is essential, contributing as it does towards our aim of having all of the line rebuilt before too long.

The railway is owned by a Charitable Trust and is run "not for profit", with most key roles undertaken by volunteers.

We are funded mainly by our visitors and through the generosity of our members and supporters. All is reinvested in the railway for future generations to enjoy.

Is the Footplate for you?

We can make dreams come true with either a footplate ride - a return journey as a guest riding on the footplate of one of our steam locos for just £20 - or an entire day with a working loco crew on the footplate of an historic narrow-gauge steam locomotive for you alone - a real taste of what it takes to operate a steam loco. At just £250 for the day this is a memorable gift for a loved one or as a corporate award.
